

Unit 2 Gear 5 dive 0 PASE No.

History of Indian Constitution: The following paragraph summarizes an introductory statement that outlined the objectives of the constitution. India is:

i) Independent & sovereign self-governing nation, reducing inequality, tolerating all religions, and reducing income and wealth.

ii) Socialist and Secular. Equally, Democracy elected by the people through free and fair election. Government of India is.

Article 1 Part 1 - Union & its territory. Part 2

Part 3 Article 12-35: Fundamental Rights.

79-122: Parliament.

- Schedules : 12 (current)

Initially, it is a good thing.

(8).

Rights: List state & union territories.